….RESPONDENT

THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE

N.V.RAMANA

W.P.No.26730 of 2005

ORDER:

The petitioner, who is a widow of a dismissed employee of the respondent Corporation, seeks a direction to the respondents to release the pensionary benefits to her on the ground that she is the nominee of the deceased Pochaiah. In fact on 3-

8-2005 she submitted a representation for release of pensionary benefits, but the respondents have neither considered the same nor granted the pensionary benefits.

Though the matter was adjourned on more than four occasions, no counter is filed. On oral instructions, the learned counsel for the respondents submits that some other persons are also claiming pension, and if the petitioner satisfies the respondents that she is the widow and nominee of the deceased dismissed employee, they will grant the pensionary benefits. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner will file necessary affidavit and documents and satisfy the respondents that she is the widow and nominee of the deceased dismissed employee.

In the above view of the matter, the petitioner shall produce the necessary documents, as may be required by the respondents, and on filing such documents, the respondents shall consider the same and pass appropriate order for payment of pensionary benefits to the petitioner, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed. No costs.
